IV. Employment			NO INTEREST
V. Ad hoc or occasional consultancy	06/2006 - now	-Name: Professor Joe N. Perry DSc FIBiol	In 2006-2007, consultancy in biometry and ecology, with a minor component of GMO-related work, exclusively for Rothamsted Research, a publicly-funded UK research institute that received less than 10% of its income from industry. Since 2007, some paid consultancy in biometry and ecology, with no component of GMO-related work in any of the projects undertaken. Details of a previous and some ongoing projects follow. The previous project concerned the analysis of field trials as a subcontractor to Dewar Crop Protection (DCP) Ltd, UK, a company contracted to perform field trials of pesticides. This work ended in June 2009 and no work has been done for DCP since this date. The first ongoing project concerns the design and analysis of field trials for the Royal Horticultural Society, a UK-based public body dedicated to horticulture and gardening. This project began in 2008. It's objective is to assess the effect of different plant assemblages – native, near-native and exotic - in garden borders on invertebrate biodiversity. The second smaller ongoing project, which also began in 2008, concerns the design and analysis of UK medical data concerning therapeutic support for those seeking employment. The design phase has ended. The analysis phase will end in 2012. Further very minor and unpaid consultancy work has been done during 2010, 2011 and 2012 on an ad-hoc basis, on EU-funded projects related to biodiversity in farmland. In terms of time, over 98% of my working time consists of advisory work as an expert on the GMO Panel of EFSA, which is ongoing since 2006. For this I receive only expenses.

VI. Research funding	06/2006 - now	-Name: Professor Joe N. Perry DSc FSB CBiol	Since retiring from Rothamsted Research in 2006 I have made no applications as a Principal Investigator for research funding. I have been employed as a self-employed Consultant on various projects for which public research funding has been awarded and some details are given in section IV. Employment, above. I have conducted private research, without any funding whatsoever, into GMOs, as part of my work as an expert for EFSA. EFSA has occasionally funded open access to research papers, but has not funded any of the research itself. I have never in my career received any funding of any form from the private sector to research any aspect of GMOs. I therefore confirm that in the latest full budget year I did not receive any (co-)funding from the private sector for the areas covered by the Panel.
VII. Intellectual property rights			NO INTEREST
VIII. Other membership or affiliation	06/2002 - 08/2010	-Name: Scientists for Labour	Organisation of scientists that exists to assist in the public understanding of science, particularly to inform the debate on scientific issues within a political party in the UK. These included some GMO-related issues, but were not limited to this. I have now resigned from this organisation.
IX. Other relevant interest	06/2006 - now	-Name: Various Public Bodies such as local churches; Faraday Institute; Christians in Science; VERDI project, Switzerland	Bioethical Research and Seminars on GMO-related issues.
X. Interests of close family members			NO INTEREST

I hereby declare that I have read both the Guidance Document on Declarations of Interests and the Procedure for identifying and handling potential conflict of interests and that the above Declaration of Interests is complete.
